Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Reverend and Mrs. O. G. Salveson were united in Holy Matrimony in Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-two; and,

WHEREAS, The Reverend and Mrs. O. G. Salveson have shared their lives for fifty years in daily service to each other, family, community and Church; and,

WHEREAS, The Reverend O. G. Salveson will commemorate and celebrate fifty years of service to God, his fellowman and the Church on July 18, 1982; and,

WHEREAS, The Reverend and Mrs. O. G. Salveson will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary at the same celebration in honor of Mr. Salveson's fiftieth anniversary of ordination; and,

WHEREAS, The Reverend and Mrs. O. G. Salveson improved the quality of life in South Dakota by serving for seven years in Our Saviour Lutheran Church in Flandreau, where they helped the people of the parish celebrate births, baptisms, and marriages, and gave the parishioners solace during times of sorrow; and,

WHEREAS, It is altogether fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this very special occasion in the lives of two very special people who share fond memories of his grandparents, John and Olive Gulbranson:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, July 18, 1982, as in South Dakota, and I join their many friends and relatives in wishing them many more years of health and happiness together.
